Those bad Spells

Lebanon, Ky.—Mrs. Minnie Limb, of this place, says: "I believe I would have been dead by now, had it not been for Cardui. I haven't had one of those bad spells since I commenced to use this medicine." Cardui is a specific medicine for the ills from which women suffer. Made from harmless, vegetable ingredients. Cardui is a safe, reliable remedy, and has been successfully used by weak and ailing women for more than fifty years. Thousands of women have been helped back to health and happiness by its use. Why not profit by their experience? A trial will convince you that Cardui is just what you need.

FARM BOYS' ENCAMPMENT

One Representative From Each County Will Be Included—Selection by Competitive Examination.

Each succeeding year brings new features to the Kentucky State Fair, some in point of instruction, others in point of amusement. This year the newest, and one of the best features ever planned by the fair management, is the holding of a Farm Boys' Encampment during the week of the fair. It is planned to have one boy from each of the 120 counties in the state in the encampment. This will give one representative boy from each county a chance to see and to study the best that is possible in the way of live stock, farm products, improved methods, improved machinery, and in fact every appliance and tool in use, on an up-to-date farm.

The knowledge and educational benefit derived from this camp of instruction will be spread broadcast throughout the entire state. The selection of the boys will be made on a competitive examination of essays by a committee composed of the county school superintendent, a member of the state board of agriculture and a member of the faculty of the Agricultural college. The applicant must be between the age of 15 and 18 years, and must reside and work on the farm. The essay to be submitted by them is to consist of not less than 400 and not more than 600 words, upon the subject of "Our Home Farm." The essay must be in the hands of the committee before the 20th of August. The applicant whose essay receives the highest standing will be entitled to a free trip to the Kentucky State Fair from each county.

In addition to free transportation, lodging and meals at the fair grounds will be furnished. The boys will be met at the railway station in Louisville by competent guides, who will take them to the fair grounds, at which place they will be under the immediate supervision of Prof. T. B. Bryant of the Agricultural college.

REVIEW OF REVIEWS

THIS election is of supreme importance to you. The whole country is divided. On one side the progressive, forward-looking, on the other the conservative, backward-looking. Both parties will promise many things. You will have to judge their claims and their fitness to carry them out. In these stirring times is a necessity to the busy man or woman who values his time to date. In a hundred ways its editorial, its character sketches and its timely articles will help you make your choice. It gives you the best, clearest and most accurate, non-partisan and unprejudiced news that money can buy. It is the great monthly newspaper on which intelligent people everywhere rely for their news, and you get this news almost as promptly as it is given in the great daily newspapers of the country.

Senior Lecturer says: "The Review of Reviews is a valuable source of information. I have found it the most reliable and the most complete of any publication."
